VETERAN BOWLER HAS HIGH MARK IN ALLEY GAME

J. C. Chamberlin Toppies Pins for Average of 188; Four Men Over 180 Mark

Four men remain in the 180 class, according to the figures of W. A. Raseman, official scorer of the Y. M. C. A. bowling league. The first round has just ended and the official averages of all the bowlers are presented. J. C. Chamberlin has a slight lead over Carl Wikander for first place. Chamberlin dropped to 186.73, while Wikander came up to 188.26 through his stellar work against the Honolulu. Frank Benson of the Cosmos, winner of the grand average prize for the winter league, is in third place now with an average of 184.62. George Reed of the Service, who finished a fraction of a pin behind Benson, is the other 180 bowler in the spring league. George Cosmos boosted his average to 178.66 last week and is in fifth place. W. A. Ham is the best of the Cheechako bowlers, while Harold Gear leads the Honolulu. Henry Yap is high average man for the All-Chinese, with K. T. Pong a close second. The complete official averages are as follows:

BOXING BOUTS AT Y. M. BRING OUT GOOD EXHIBITION

An interesting boxing exhibition was staged at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday evening. John Bobrowski, lightweight champion of the Philippine Islands, boxed four rounds with C. Schuman of the 2nd Infantry. Bobrowski also put on the gloves for two fast rounds with J. Martin, also of the 2nd Infantry. Bobrowski showed a thorough knowledge of scientific boxing. He was hardly up to his best form, not having been in the game for the past year. No attempt at heavy blows was made at the exhibition, so it was impossible to secure a line on the real merits of the performers. Schuman and Martin Show. The local men, Schuman and Martin, showed up splendidly against the champion. Schuman held his own until the fourth round and showed some clever work. Martin was a distinct surprise. His recent improvement was remarkable. Bobrowski could hardly touch him for the greater part of the two rounds.

A musical program and refreshments in Cooke Hall preceded and followed the gym exhibition. Bowling was indulged in for an hour at the close of the evening. Louis Terras of Fort Armstrong proved himself the star at this sport.

POLICE THINK WONG MURDERED ON MOLOKAI

Was Wong Wal Bound murdered? The police of Molokai and Maui think so. Wong disappeared from his home on Molokai about two weeks ago. Relatives said that he had left his home early in the morning, threatening suicide, with a revolver and a knife. It is reported that he had had trouble with his wife, a part-Hawaiian woman, and was despondent. His disappearance was reported to the police at night when he did not return home. In the next week several parties made extended search for him without success. No trace of him has been discovered since. Sheriff Crowell of Maui now thinks that Wong was murdered and his body either buried or weighted and thrown into the sea.

URGES ORGANIZATION OF JAPANESE ASSOCIATION

In a recent address to Japanese newspaper men, Consul-General R. Morol, Japan's new representative here, urged the formation of an organized association of Hawaii Japanese to have as its purpose their general betterment. The consul said, in part: "Thirty years have passed since Japanese began to emigrate to these islands, yet there is now in existence no real union or active association embracing the Japanese in Hawaii as a whole. The Japanese in Hawaii cannot and should not wish to depend too much on the extra-territorial home government and its officials who are now and then coming and going."
